SENATE ADOPTS THE GALLINGER RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution by Senator Gallinger has been adopted by the United States senate:

"The senate of the United States, dedicating itself to the principles of peace and good will among men, deprecates the war between certain European powers and expresses the earnest hope that existing differences between European countries will be settled and that the fearful destruction of human life and the great waste of property may be averted."

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR STEAMER PASSENGERS

The Boston and Maine road sent a special train of parlor and sleeping cars to Portland on Tuesday afternoon to meet the passengers of the steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie from Bar Harbor over the Maine Central who were sent to New York in three sections via Lowell, Junction and Worcester. The equipment sent to Portland for the use of these passengers was the best in use on the Portland division.

GEORGE B. FRENCH CO.

(Special to The Herald)

London, Aug. 5.—The first naval battle in the Mediterranean sea has occurred and resulted in a crushing defeat for the German sea forces. The dispatches received today state that the French and British fleets effected a junction while in pur-suit of German warships which had been sighted off the north-ern coast of Africa. Coming up with the German ships off the coast of Morocco, the allied-combined fleets attacked them and after a hard fight sank one and captured two. The war ship that was sunk was the cruiser Panther and those captured were the cruisers Breslau and Goeben, according to the ad-vice received here.

CLAMORING FOR WAR

(Special to The Herald)

Rome, Aug. 5.—The war party is demanding that Italy re-scind her declaration of neutrality and join with Germany and Austria. There has been a remarkable change of sentiment as the result of dispatches from London saying that England had declared war on Germany.

LARGE FORCE OF GERMANS INVADING BELGIUM

(Special to The Herald)

Maestricht, Holland, Aug. 5.—Eighty thousand German troops invading Belgium have defeated the frontier forces of King Albert of Belgium and have practically destroyed the town of Vise, northeast of Liege. They have reached the port east of Liege and are re-ported to be shelling the mas-sive fortifications at that place.

GERMAN INVADERS HEADING SOUTHWARD

(Special to The Herald)

Brussels, Aug. 5.—German artillery is bombarding Namur at the junction of the Meuse and Sambre rivers, thirty-six miles southeast of Brussels. The city has 35,000 inhabitants and is strongly fortified. This report indicates that the German invaders are turning southward and heading for the French frontier.

GERMANS INVADE SWITZERLAND

(Special to The Herald)

Paris, Aug. 5.—The foreign office to-day confirmed the invasion of Switzer-land by German troops. This is a viola-tion of the Swiss neutrality.

BRITISH WARSHIP REPORTED SUNK

(Special to The Herald)

London, Aug. 5.—A British mine-laying ship has been sunk by the Ger-man fleet. The British torpedo boat destroyer Fulmouth was chased by the fleet, but managed to make its escape.

NAVAL BATTLE OFF PORTLAND?

(Special to The Herald)

Portland, Me., Aug. 5.—Heavy firing off Portland was heard at 7 o'clock this morning by many persons. Eight to ten shots were heard by scores of per-ple in Portland, by many others in Bath and by hundreds at Popham Beach. The officers at the forts in Portland harbor heard it and many of them called the newspapers to inquire where the firing was. Two German squadrons of dirigibles and aeroplanes supplied with bombs to drop upon the cruisers, Dresden and Karlsruhe, have been reported in American waters and the French cruiser Priant also has been seen in these waters.

NORTH CAROLINA GOING TO EUROPE

(Special to The Herald)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 5.—The ar-mored cruiser North Carolina will be sent to Europe by the United States government with the armored cruiser Tennessee carrying gold to the Ameri-can tourists abroad. The object of sending two vessels to various Euro-pean ports is to distribute the money more quickly, whereas it would take one ship much too long.

ENGLISH LINER IS UNDER CONVOY

(Special to The Herald)

New York, Aug. 5.—Thwarted by two English cruisers, the Essex and Her-wich, the British owned Cunard liner, Lamartine, is speeding today for Eng-land with 200 passengers and $200,000 in gold. Larking somewhere off the American coast are three German cruisers and there is a mere possibility that a big naval battle will be fought in close proximity of the American coast over the possession of the giant liner.

MARINES COME UP FROM LAST PLACE

Defeat Knights of Columbus and Go Ahead of C. C. Co.--Have Played Good Ball the Last Five Games.

In a heavy mist and a cold north-easter, the Marines defeated the Knights of Columbus on Tuesday evening, the game being one of the postponed games of which there are three to be played to clear up the schedule. This was the Marines' last game and they were the last game of the season. The Y. M. C. A. finish up their games and Thursday the P. A. C. and Knights of Columbus will close the season which, by the way, has been the best season in the history of the Sunset League.

The game last evening was one sided for the Marines got a four run lead in the first and added two more in the second and with the fast falling darkness it was enough to assure them of a win. Heffernan is being saved for the game with the P. A. C. and C. C. Co. went in the box and his offerings were to the taste of the Marines who in three innings got eight hits. He got some ragged support from his own team. Bennett pitched great ball allowing but one hit up to the fourth when he was reached for three more along with a base on ball netted three runs.

The features of the game was the catch of Keenan in the third and the stop of Moser in the same inning.

THE GAME IN DETAIL.
FIRST INNING
The Knights were out in order, McWilliams on a fly to Bennett, M. Reardon fanned and Moser was thrown out by Cooper.

Moser singled but was forced at second on Letch's grounder to McWilliams. Letch stole second and a wild pitch placed him on third from where he scored on M. Reardon's fumble of Mims' grounder. Whetmore hit to right and W. Mates fumbled so that Mims scored. Bennett doubled scoring Whetmore and Wiggins followed with a two base hit scoring Bennett. Cooper was thrown out by C. Reardon and Donovan by McWilliams. Four runs.

SECOND INNING
C. Reardon flied to Cooper, J. Mims was safe on Donovan's fumble and Heffernan flied to Bennett. W. Mates singled advancing his father but Keenan struck out.

Hamilton reached first on Gorman's fumble and was safe at second on M. Reardon's miff of Moser's perfect throw. Moser struck out. Letch flied to Gorman, Mims hit for two bases scoring Hamilton. Whetmore came across with a wallop. In the tenth courts scoring Mims and going to third himself, but Bennett was thrown out by M. Reardon. Two runs.

THIRD INNING
Keenan was thrown out by Bennett. McWilliams flied to Hamilton and M. Reardon was thrown out by Moser who made a great stop and throw.

Wiggins fanned. Strand who took Cooper's place singled and reached second on C. Reardon's bad throw to first. Donovan hit to Gorman who fumbled. Strand advanced on a balk. Hamilton drove out a sacrifice fly to Keenan, a fine catch. Strand scoring. Moser flied to J. Mates. One run.

FOURTH INNING
Moser opened with a three batter. C. Reardon struck out, J. Mates walked and stole second. Heffernan came across with a single scoring Moser and J. Mates. W. Mates fanned. Gorman singled to left and Heffernan scored on Donovan's fumble. Keenan was thrown out by Bennett. Three runs.

The game was called on account of darkness. The score:

WILL APPEAL TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Want Public Works to Collect
Paper as Formerly.

A petition is in circulation by the people in the business section which will later be presented to the city government. It is a protest against the cutting of the board of public works relative to the collection of paper by the street department.

The numerous signers want the collection made as before and the paper taken with other refuse without being tied up in bundles. The petitioners claim it means double the work and cost for removing the refuse under the present arrangement.

The outcome of the appeal to the council is awaited with much interest from the fact that the council has no directing power over the public works department and the petition is likely to start something at City Hall.

GERMANY NOTIFIES UNITED STATES OF "STATE OF WAR"

Washington, Aug. 4.—The German making of its waters subservient to the purpose of war.

New, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, in order to preserve the neutrality of the United States and of its citizens, and of persons within its territory and jurisdiction, and to enforce its laws and treaties, and in order that all persons, being warned of the general tenor of the laws and treaties of the United States in this behalf and of the law of nations may thus be prevented from any violation of the same, do hereby declare and proclaim that by certain provisions of the act approved on the 14th day of March, A. D. 1909, commonly known as the "Espionage Code of the United States," the following acts are forbidden to be done under severe penalties, within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States.

Citizens Warned.

After enumerating the ten articles in the code, the President concluded as follows:

And I do further declare and proclaim that the statutes and the treaties of the United States and the law of nations alike require that no person within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States shall take part directly or indirectly in the said war but shall remain at peace with all of the said belligerents and shall maintain a strict and impartial neutrality.

And I do hereby enjoin all citizens of the United States and all persons domiciled herein notice on the United States today that a "state of war" existed between France and Germany.

It is tantamount to a declaration of war, but technically different.

The notice from the German Consul at Newport is practically the same as the announcement in Berlin last night by the German Premier, in which he sought to place upon France full responsibility for the beginning of hostilities.

Naval Lodge, A. F. and A. M., will hold a regular meeting tonight.

Mrs. Walter L. Kennel of Whipple Road was the recent guest of friends in Dover.

The local correspondent has been informed that the quickest way to send in an alarm of fire at night is to telephone to Segrave's store, which place of business is open all night, and he will at once go to the Christian church and send in the alarm. As fires seem to be a daily, or more strictly speaking, a nightly occurrence, of late, it would be well to bear this fact in mind.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Maxwell of Orla avenue, returned home Monday evening from a short visit in Providence, R. I.

Miss Eleanor Lovell of Stinson street is still confined to her home with an attack of acute indigestion.

The ruins of the Sunday fire broke out again Monday and Tuesday evening, which necessitated a watch being placed.

The Ladies Circle will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2.30 at the home of Mrs. J. Edgar Burnham, on Woodlawn avenue.

Tickets are out for the annual garden party in aid of the Catholic Mission, Kittery, August 25. Admission 25c.

The local volunteer fire department did good work at the Eliot fire early this morning. The boys are wondering where the third fire will be—York or Kittery Point.

Chief Windrich was greatly hampered this morning by not having a telephone in his house. It would seem advisable for the town to have one installed at the chief's residence on Love lane so quick service may be rendered in case of fire.

Concerning the fire Sunday evening at the Sweet residence, the owner estimates his loss at about $4,000, and upon the total loss there is but partial insurance. He expresses his sincere thanks to all who assisted in subduing the fire and for their efforts to save the house and furnishings. Especial mention of the navy yard fire department is made for if it had not been for them the whole would have burned. The cause of the fire is still unknown. Mr. Sweet came from Boston that evening crossing to Kittery upon the 5.29 ferry, entered his home at 8.45, retiring at 10.10, and at that time there were not any signs of fire. At 10.15 he was called by Mr. Alvah Frost who was passing on an automobile. The end of the stable and part shed were all ablaze. The Kittery Fire Department made as quick time as possible, owing to the fact that they were hampered by work upon the highway and not having any horses to attach to the hose wagon. In regard to an explosion there was nothing to explode other than hot air, for all explosives were taken care of when the fire was discovered.

George Howell has returned to his duties in Worcester, Mass., after passing two weeks with relatives in town.

Miss Ethel Gerry, assistant postmistress at the local office, starts today on her annual vacation and will pass the same with friends in Vermont.

Mrs. Simonds and daughter Mildred of Somerville, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goodwin of Dame street.

The hosts of friends in town of Judge Aaron D. Cole extend to him their heartfelt sympathy for the heavy loss he sustained in the burning of his home in Eliot early this morning.

Master Hamilton Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Lyons of Locke's Cove, gave a very pretty party to fifteen of his little playmates on Tuesday afternoon in honor of his fifth birthday anniversary. The time was passed with games, after which a dainty lunch was served consisting of ice cream, fancy cakes and cookies, confectionery and fruit punch. The ladies were prettily set and were placed on the piazza, each cover having a favor for the guests, the boys receiving little boats and the girls dolls. The little host was also remembered with many pretty little gifts in honor of the occasion.

Mr. John McKenna of Quincy, Mass., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Robert Stanley of Dame street.

About 150 members and friends of the Eastern Star, No. 23, Order of the Eastern Star, enjoyed an outing at Quamquam park on Tuesday afternoon and evening. The committee in charge had prepared games for the occasion, the feature being the ball game between two teams of ladies. At present both sides claim to have won. A picnic supper, supplemented by hot coffee, lemonade and ice cream was served in the Casino, where owing to the inclement weather, the tables were set up. After the supper the other games and dancing were in order. Miss Ellen Bowden furnishing music for the dance. At nine o'clock a special car conveyed the picnicers to their homes.

THE UNITED STATES PROCLAIMS ITS NEUTRALITY

President Wilson Issues Proclamation Dealing With Russia, France and Germany.

Washington, Aug. 4.—The United States today proclaimed its neutrality in the European war. The proclamation was signed and issued by President Wilson.

The proclamation reads: Whereas, a state of war unhappily exists between Austria-Hungary and Serbia and between Germany and Russia and between Germany and France, and

Whereas, the United States is on terms of friendship and amity with the contending powers and with the persons inhabiting their several dominions; and

Whereas, there are citizens of the United States residing within the territories or dominions of each of the said belligerents and carrying on commerce, trade, or other business or pursuits therein; and

Whereas, there are subjects of each of the said belligerents residing within the territory or jurisdiction of the United States and carrying on commerce, trade, or other business or pursuits therein; and

Whereas, the laws and treaties of the United States without interfering with the free expression of opinion and sympathy or with the commerce, manufacture or sale, of arms or munitions of war, nevertheless impose upon all persons, who may be within their territory and jurisdiction, the duty of an impartial neutrality during the existence of the contest; and

Whereas, it is the duty of a neutral government not to permit of suffer residing or being within the territory or jurisdiction of the United States, to observe the laws thereof, and to commit no act contrary to the provisions of the said statutes, or treaties or in violation of the law of nations in that behalf;

And I do hereby warn all citizens of the United States and all persons residing or being within its territory or jurisdiction that while the free and full expression of sympathies in public and private is not restricted by the laws of the United States, military forces in aid of a belligerent, cannot lawfully be originated or organized within its jurisdiction; and that while all persons may lawfully and without restriction by reason of the aforesaid state of war, manufacture and sell within the United States arms and munitions of war, and other articles ordinarily known as "contraband of war," yet they cannot carry such articles upon the high seas for the use of or service of a belligerent nor can they transport soldiers and officers of a belligerent, nor attempt to break any blockade, which may be lawfully established and maintained during the said war, without incurring the risk of hostile capture and the penalties denounced by the law of nations in that behalf.

Less Protection. And I do hereby give notice that all citizens of the United States and others who may claim the protection of this government, who may misconduct themselves at their peril, and that they can in no wise obtain any protection from the government of the United States against the consequences of their misconduct.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-eighth.

MISS ROGERS ON MISS FARMER

Editor Portsmouth Daily Chronicle: Dear Sir:—My attention has just been called to the Chronicle, July 30, which contains a letter over the name of my cousin, Sarah J. Farmer.

This letter informs us that Miss Farmer "recovered her health" long ago. The word "recovered" hardly expresses what appears to have taken place.

Let us look back and recall the founder of Greenacre, presiding at meetings when some excited speaker poured forth a storm of words which might arouse antagonism. She would step forward with the sweet smile which we all remember, and her gentle, soothing words come like a rain-bow after the storm. Let us re-read something which she wrote at that time and then, with her thoughts and her poetical language still fresh in our minds, let us read this recent production with the phrases like sharp pointed arrows; the spirit, the thought even the vocabulary are so gallingly foreign to her former self that the word "recovered" does not express the complete change in personality which is shown.

So obvious is this that some of her old friends have expressed to me their belief that she did not write the letter. Evidently, this belief was well-justified. It never used to be her custom to have her private letters to personal friends witnessed.

In the old days my cousin would have sent such criticisms directly to me and not to a third party nor to a newspaper. At that time she might have omitted the witness, and her own signature as well, without causing a doubt regarding the authenticity of her letter. Her style of writing was so unmistakably her own that there was little chance of an imitation passing undetected.

I will regard this letter as an example of the phenomenon of transformed personality.

It informs us that the appointment of Mr. Hammond was obtained against her express wish. I have never known why I was not permitted to learn her wishes at that time. My repeated requests to see her were refused. My letters were not answered. I consider that she was deprived of her rights when she was not given an opportunity to explain just what she wanted done in a matter of such importance to herself. Mr. Thompson had gone to Egypt. The numerous people who claimed to represent him were not acting for the best interests of his wife; therefore, the Maine court appointed Mr. Hammond, who had been suggested because he had ever been a friend of Miss Farmer, and by all who knew him. We felt that he would be perfectly satisfactory to the Miss Farmer when we knew.

The writer of this letter mentions "a time when my relations showed no interest in me." This would be but a natural inference drawn from the facts that she did not know when we called to see her and received no letters from us.

The unfamiliar style especially in speaking of the "so-called Bahists," the "unfriendly guardian" and the false statement that she "was refused a room in her own house" announces to her old friends that this letter was not written by the same personality that was so well known at Greenacre. This writing ignores the fact which I stated in my letter that Greenacre is not in the hands of Bahists. Even if it were I cannot imagine Miss Farmer regarding them in any way but loving fellowship. She was an ardent Bahist herself.

This letter is addressed to Mr. Sanborn. The first I ever heard of him, Miss Farmer named him as one of those who were trying to get Greenacre out of her control into their own hands. This scheme worried her so much that it became a factor in bringing about her mental collapse. She persistently avoided him when she was free. I have no recollection of ever meeting him at my own home, where my cousin spent much time, nor at her home in Eliot. In one of the letters which he has recently published over his own name, he states: "I never heard that this cousin, Miss or Mrs. Rogers, ever took any interest in Miss Farmer's plans and sacrifices." This confirms my own memory that he was not associated with her; if he had been he would have met me frequently. But it does not corroborate the statement of the new Miss Farmer when she says, "You have been my friend and associate for twenty years and more." She also says: "You do represent me."

I admit that Mr. Sanborn does consistently represent the writer of this letter; but I do still maintain that he does not represent the gentle leader who gave her all to found a center from which should radiate peace and brotherly love for all mankind.

MARGUERITE B. ROGERS, York Beach, Maine, Aug. 3, 1914.

Changed All Around.

"Jack asked me to marry him last week, and I refused. Yesterday I telephoned him that I had changed my mind."

"What was the result?"

"He said that he had changed his mind."

CRUISER TENNESSEE TO BRING RELIEF TO AMERICANS

Five Millions in Gold to Be Sent to England for Their Use--Army Transports May Be Used.

Washington, Aug. 4.—The armored cruiser Tennessee will sail from New York at 5 p. m. tomorrow with between $5,000,000 and $8,000,000 in gold for Americans in Europe.

The sources from which all the gold would be taken had not been fully determined today, but will be arranged at further conferences between officials and New York bankers. A Navy paymaster will go in charge of the treasure.

President Wilson Approves Plans. President Wilson today approved the detailed plans which were drawn up last night at a conference between Sec. Bryan, Sec. McAdoo, Robert Lansing, collector of the State Department, a counsel for the American Express Company and Benjamin Strong, a New York banker.

Congress will be asked to empower Sec. McAdoo to appoint fiscal agents in Europe to supervise the expenditure of the $25,000,000 fund, which will be in addition to the $20,000,000 appropriated yesterday.

A. C. Miller of the Federal Reserve Board will work out the details of the relief plan, and to add him trained men from the War and Navy Departments who are specialists in transportation will be asked to give their full cooperation. Mr. Miller first will get in touch with steamship companies to get their cooperation and find what vessels will be available.

In order to get gold to Europe arrangements will be made to send a United States vessel, with the consent of foreign governments, under the flag of the United States, to the countries involved in the war.

Americans Will Be Ready to Embark. The State Department today called diplomatic and consular officers abroad to assemble all Americans in the countries involved and have them ready to embark for home.

Officials have been told it will be possible to get enough steamers from the coastwise service, and plans are being laid for chartering the necessary number.

Mr. Miller conferred with Sec. Garrison today over the use of Army transports. Mr. Garrison explained there were 12 Army transports at Galveston, three Government-owned and the others under charter, which could be sent to European ports. The vessels would afford accommodations for thousands of refugees, but only a few could be provided with cabin passage.

The 21 military attaches at European Embassies and Legations would be put at work to facilitate transportation.

President Wilson today signed the bill passed yesterday appropriating the first $250,000.

Work at Remedy cottage was resumed again this year and all indications point to a most successful year. The institution is run by the Boston City Mission Society and the good work done there is greatly appreciated by those who have been put down and pale and when they go away fresh, happy and young again.

Everything has been provided for the entertainment of the children, tennis, croquet and football and each of the four parties are given a trip to York Beach during their two weeks' stay at the cottage. There are about 40 or more people in the cottage all the time for the eight weeks it is open, and it will close at the usual time the last of August.

TREASURE SHIP ARRIVES AT BAR HARBOR

Kronprinzessin Cecile With Eleven Millions of Gold Runs to Maine Coast to Escape Capture By French Cruiser.

Bar Harbor, Me., Aug. 4. The North German Lloyd steamer Kronprinzessin Cecile, carrying more than $11,000,000 in gold and whose whereabouts have been a mystery since she sailed from New York last Tuesday, arrived at the harbor here today.

The Cecile dropped anchor here at 6 o'clock this morning after a forced run of four days, her officers fearing capture.

With a cargo of ten millions in gold and a million in silver, consigned to French and English bankers, with an estimated value of more than five millions in herself, the Kronprinzessin Cecile has constituted probably the richest prize ever open to capture.

As she coasted along the Maine coast and into the harbor, under the cover of night, each deck at every port-hole was blanketed with canvas, so that not a gleam of light betrayed her whereabouts. Her four stout stacks had been tipped with black paint, so that she resembled an English steamship.

At one time capture seemed imminent. Capt. Charles Polack reported on Sunday that he had intercepted a wireless message from one French vessel to another, giving warning of the Cecile's proximity, but under the protection of a providential fog the North German Lloyd liner escaped.

Dramatic Scene at Dance
The Cecile left New York early last Tuesday morning, July 28, bound for Bremen, via Plymouth and Cherbourg, with 350 first class, 100 second class and 136 steerage passengers. About a third of the first class are Germans, who sailed to anticipate the war crisis, whose sudden precipitation drove them back to America. Most of the rest are Americans.

Friday night, while a dance was in progress, one of the passengers noticed that the position of the Moon had unaccountably shifted to the port side of the ship. Before the significance of this was realized the captain called the men into the smoking room.

"Gentlemen," he said, "war has been declared between England, France, Germany and Austria. We are going back to America. We have enough coal for our return home, and it is my earnest hope that we shall not be intercepted by foreign war vessels."

There was nervous laughter, applause, congratulations, protests which gave way to a grave state of apprehension as the seriousness of the situation became apparent. Electric lights were turned off and the ship was covered from prow to stern in a canopy of canvas. This smothered whatever beams of light escaped through chinks in the stateroom windows.

Offered to Buy Ship.
According to the ship's log she was then 16 degrees, 46 minutes north latitude, 50 degrees 21 minutes west longitude. In two days she would have docked at Plymouth.

A group of merchants on board offered to buy the ship and sell her under American colors, but to all proposals the captain replied that his ship was spelled by his orders from Bremen, which instructed him to turn back and save his ship. There was a stampede for the wireless, but the captain announced that no message would be sent for fear of betraying his ship's location.

The American port, which the captain would try to make was a matter for commonest speculation. It was not until the passengers awoke this morning in the midst of the green Maine hills that they knew their destination because of the fog.

For two nights, with her head and side lights extinguished and every other illumination blotted out with canvas, the Kronprinzessin Cecile ploughed through the fog with unerring speed.

Congressmen on Board
The captain's only concession was to reveal the fog horn. When the vessel steamed safely into Bar Harbor today, he received a long line of passengers, who congratulated him on his achievement. Capt. Polack is lieutenant commander of the Naval Reserve of Germany.

Among the passengers were Congressmen A. J. Borchardt of Pennsylvania and Richard Bartholdt of Missouri. C. Leonard Blair of New York, Gov. Charles P. Miller of Delaware and Samuel Newhouse, the copper magnate of Utah and New York.

Capt. Polack said he was awaiting advice from his office in New York. "I can see no possibility of taking this ship to New York from here with safety," he said. "To avoid foreign vessels, we should have to keep within the three-mile limit, and to accomplish this the ship would have to be built like a canoe."

"We have reached an American port in safety, and that was more than I had dared to hope. We have been in almost constant danger of capture, and we can consider ourselves extremely lucky to have come out so well."

"I know I have been criticised for making too great speed under bad weather conditions, but I have not willfully endangered the lives of the passengers. I would rather have lost the whole ship and cargo than have assumed any such risk. Of course, added to this consideration, my one aim has been to save my ship and my cargo from capture."

"I have not been acting on my own initiative, but under orders from the North German Lloyd in Bremen, and although I am an officer in the German Navy, my duty has been to the steamship line."

The passengers were inspected by the doctors and later allowed to land. They left here for Boston and New York on a special train of sleepers late this evening.

MILK CANS SHOULD BE JACKETED.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 4.—The Dairy Division of the Department of Agriculture has just completed a series of tests on the change in temperature of milk in cans during transportation from the farm to the consumer.

These tests established the importance of jacketing cans of milk with some appropriate insulating material. It has been found that milk that has to be sent only short distances or preserved for only a few hours should maintain a temperature of less than 50 degrees. Even at these temperatures, sour bacteria will multiply and cause the souring of the milk, but the increase is slow and during a few hours no serious results will occur. A temperature well below 50 degrees, however, materially decreases the rate of bacterial growth.

On the other hand, where milk is to be shipped long distances, the initial temperature must be lower, assuming that in that of protection is made for maintaining the original temperature during transportation. Where milk is to be stored for several hours, it is necessary to cool it down to near the freezing point. So soon as the milk can, however, is exposed to air temperature and especially to the sun, the temperature of the milk begins to rise very rapidly and every precaution should be taken to keep it from being raised by the outside heat.

A series of experiments was recently made in shipping milk cooled to 50 degrees. In these cases the cans were set in an open truck, with no covering to shield them from the direct rays of the sun. The milk was heated a distance of 15 miles and the average air temperature during the trip was 82-85 degrees. The experiment showed that the cans that were hot-jacketed showed a rise of only 5 1-2 degrees in 8 hours in the temperature of the milk. The cans that were wrapped with wet burlap showed a milk temperature of 58 1-2 degrees in the same period, or a rise of 8 1-2 degrees. The milk in the jacketed cans rose in three hours to 78 1-2 degrees, or a rise of 28 1-2 degrees.

It is obvious from these figures that it pays to jacket the cans, in order to maintain a low temperature during transportation.

THE MERRIMACK
Sirens of my fatherland sweetly still
The sunset rays they valley fill;
Poured slantwise down the long defile
Wave, wood, and apple beneath them smile.

I see the winding Powwow fold
The green hill in its belt of gold,
And following down its wavy line,
Its sparkling waters blend with thine.
There's not a tree upon thy side,
Nor rock, which thy returning tide
As yet hath left abrupt and stark
Above thy evening watermark;
No calm cove with the rocky hem,
No lake whose emerald sweets begem
Thy broad mouth current; not a sail
Blowed to the freshened ocean gale;
No small boat with its busy oars,
Nor gray walls sloping to thy shores;
Nor farm house with its maple shade,
Or rigid poplar colonnade,
But lies distinct and full in sight,
Beneath the gaze of sunset light.
Centuries ago, that harbor bar
Stretching its length of foam afar,
And Sallemur's beach of shining sand,
And yonder island's wave-smoothed strand,
Saw the adventurer's tiny sail,
Pit, stooping from the eastern gale;
And o'er these woods and waters broke
The cheer from Britton's heart of oak.
As brightly on the voyager's eye,
Weary of forest, sea and sky,
Bringing the dull continent's word,
The Merrimack rolled down her flood:
Mingling that cheer with the brook,
Which channels vast Azimoch
When springtime's sun and shower
Unlock

The frozen fountains of the rock,
And more abundant waters given
From that pure lake, "The Sale of Heaven."
Tribe from yale and in cantabridges
With ocean's dark, eternal tide
—John Greenleaf Whittier.

INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE

Senator Brandegee Writes Hon. Frank W. Hackett Concerning Trade Com- mission Legislation.

We are permitted, by the request of five writers, to publish the following correspondence:

1219 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C.,
July 28, 1914.

Dear Senator:—Your speech of yesterday about trust legislation in hot weather, is so much to the point, that I can't resist the impulse to thank you for making it. I ever there were a time when somebody ought to "speak right out in meeting." This is it; and you did it in good shape. It ought to do a great deal of good. I may be a poor prognosticator, but I am not going to be surprised if this absurd program of the President's should some day collapse, and what everybody wants should happen—i. e., school stand dissolved.

Yours truly,
Frank W. Hackett.
Hon. Frank B. Brandegee,
4521 K Street,
United States Senate, Committee on the Judiciary.

July 29, 1914.
Hon. Frank W. Hackett,
1219 Conn. Avenue,
Washington, D. C.,

Dear Mr. Hackett:—Your note of the 28th instant, was received last night. I thank you very much for your approval.

I do not think that anything said on the floor by Republicans will have the slightest effect on the Democrats. Many of them disapprove of entering upon this class of legislation at the present time; and many of them absolutely oppose the provisions of these bills, but they are afraid to say so publicly. They are afraid, if they express their views or vote against these measures, they will be denounced by the President as traitors to the administration. The only question is which they fear the most, the President or their constituents.

If their constituents, who oppose these measures, would assert themselves and demand that their senators represent them instead of the half-baked ideas of the President, they would see that they would be injured more by betraying their constituents and their own opinions than they would by refusing to obey the president, but I don't think there is any chance that this will happen. After a little while, they will be driven into a secret caucus, vote to put the bills through as decided upon, lay all amendments on the table, which cuts off debate, and which they have the votes to do so, and jam the bills through.

If the business men of the country would organize, and see that it was for their interest to keep the demagogue at home, they could control the situation. As long as they prefer to stick their noses in the cracks of their ledgers and decline to have anything to do with public affairs, for fear it will hurt their business, or that they will be investigated by a government detective, so long they will deserve just the kind of government they are getting.

With kind regards, and thank you for your much appreciated letter, remain,

Very sincerely yours,
Frank B. Brandegee.

A small, rather timid-looking man entered a newspaper office and approached the clerk.

"Are you the man who takes in society news?" he queried, with an appealing look.

"Yes, sir," cheerfully replied the young man at the desk. "I can take any kind of news. What have you got?"

"Why, it's just this way," said the caller, lowering his voice. "My wife gave a party last night. It was a brilliant affair, and I am willing to pay to have this report of it put in the paper."

"We don't charge anything for publishing society news," explained the clerk at the same time taking the proffered manuscript, and looking it over. "That's all right," was the reply. "You don't get me. I wrote this up myself, and I put in a line that says, 'Mr. Halfback assisted his distinguished wife in receiving the guests.' That's the way I want it to go in, and I don't care what the cost is, absolutely don't care what the cost is. I want my friends to know, by George, that I still belong to the family."—Lippincott's Magazine.

RUSH ORDERS RECEIVED ON THE CRUISER MONTANA

Orders were received at the navy yard on Tuesday afternoon to have the cruiser Montana ready for sea by Aug. 11 next Tuesday. The rush orders are supposed to be with the idea that the Government may have to send ships to Europe to bring home stranded Americans.

At the yard it was considered impossible to get the ship ready at that time except by leaving unfinished a great deal of the work which has been planned.

YOUR FRIENDS AND YOUR BOOKS

Questions Which Are Asked When Callers See Your Library

"You don't mean to say you've read all those books?"

"No, I haven't read Emerson for years; but I never tire of him."

"Don't you love these little Shakespeare books?" And he was such a very great poet!"

"What a wonderful writer Charles Lamb was!"

"I have a confession to make. I have never read a line of philosophy. But I mean to take it up some time."

"It's such a good idea, your putting Dickens, Thackeray and Scott together. We certainly couldn't live without them."

"Isn't that a beautiful edition! Of course you would never think of reading it."

"Yes, you are right not to have all fine bindings I like to feel my books are friends, don't you?"

"I suppose you have the revised version of the Bible, also. Of course you wouldn't leave that out."

"What I like about the Bible is that you can almost always understand it!"

"I just adore poetry! I could spend days on this shelf alone!"

"Isn't it nice to think you can sit here quietly and improve yourself, and that you don't have to ride in a hot, dusty auto?"

"That's just the sort of a book I like. It's such a beautiful color."

"I never could make up my mind between Goethe and Schiller. They both are so representative."

"Think of being surrounded all the time by such wonderful thoughts!"

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR STEAMSHIP PASSENGERS

A special train of Pullman cars went through this city at five o'clock Tuesday evening bound for New York, to take the passengers from the German steamer Kronprinzessin Cecilie. The train is expected to go through to New York with the first class passengers and will go over the western division of the N. and M. and via Nashua and Worcester to New York.

ABSENT-MINDED LOVER.

He May Have Been Correct, But Was a Little Previous.

A good many anecdotes have been printed of the extreme absent-mindedness of married men, but none is more amusing than that told of Herr Ludwig Wilhelm Bruggemann, whose vivid imagination helped to put him in a very embarrassing situation.

Bruggemann, a scholar, who was in 1817 a councillor of the consistory at Stettin, had got some reputation by his clever work with statistics. For many years he had been a widower, and since he found single life lonely, he began to look round for a wife. When the thought of marriage again first came to him he immediately concluded it to one of his friends. The latter gave him every encouragement, and even went so far as to mention a certain charming widow, who was certainly attached to him, and would make him a most devoted wife.

That night Herr Bruggemann went to bed in a happy state of mind, thinking of the lovely widow. In his dream he still saw her, and even proposed to her. Did she refuse? How could she?

When he awoke it was a glorious Sunday morning; he dressed himself in his very best clothes, and waited in time in hand to the minister the announcement of his engagement, to be read in the form of the morning service. The announcement was made without a question. Hardly had the words been uttered when a little scream was heard in the rear of the church; the widow, shocked at hearing herself so unexpectedly disposed of, had fallen in a swoon.

The blunder could never be satisfactorily explained, and the visionary engagement remained visionary. The lady might not have refused an honorable proposal from the councillor, but she never could be convinced that he had not made intentional game of her. Youth's Companion.

$25 REWARD!

The above reward will be paid to whoever will furnish evidence to convict the two men, one of whom was confessed at the time, who just after midnight of Monday, August 3, last, committed divers criminal depredations upon the property of the New Castle Bridge Company.

DAVID ERMEL, Corporate Treasurer.

REUNION OF
ELIOT ACADEMY

Interesting Remarks Made by President Hanscom and
Other Members of Alumni.

The Eliot Academy Alumni Association held its annual reunion at John P. Hill Grange Hall Tuesday. The hour from 5 to 6 o'clock was devoted to renewal of acquaintance and greeting of old friends, and a short business session. At 6 o'clock the members and friends sat down to a bounteous supper furnished by the ladies of the Grange. During the supper the company joined in singing familiar songs. After the banquet, most brilliant exercises were held in the hall. President E. M. Hanscom of Philadelphia presiding. These consisted of an address by the president, solos by Miss Adlington, singing of original ones by the audience, recitation by Miss Arabella Hammond. Original poem by Mrs. Annie Perry and remarks by Alexander Denett, Aaron H. Cole, Dr. Wm. O. Jenkins, Prof. John Brooks, Joseph Tennek, Wm. Parry Tobey, Calvin Staples, Dr. J. J. M. Willis and others. During the afternoon and evening music was rendered by Hay's orchestra. The following named officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. W. L. Crum of Boston; Secretary, Alex. Denett; Treasurer, Edwin Crum. Over 100 members and guests were present. During the past five years five members have died. The reunion was one of the best and most enjoyable ever held.

That the boys are at loss to know why they didn't fit on this occasion.

That some of the democrats don't take kindly to the fusion movement.

POLICE NEWS.

Three North End residents got together on Tuesday to try and settle a business affair which involved a sum of money. One of the party put out $50 for another to take it but he refused.

The third man picked it up and kept it. He was later served with a warrant charging him with larceny and settled it out of court.

Ray Nason and Myrtle Lawson, charged with a statutory offense, will be heard in the district court this afternoon. They were arrested early this morning.

Jean Abin and Aldah E. Sahib, two peddlers, were arrested at noon charged with peddling without a license and will be heard in court this afternoon.
James Cameron and John Stone, who smashed the glass in the window of the store of Samuel Maddock & son on Tuesday were released today after agreeing to pay for the damage.

MUSICAL AT RYE BEACH

Tuesday evening a musicale was given in the North Rye Beach ten room. There was a large audience of beach residents in spite of the in-element weather. The interior was profusely decorated with wild flowers.

On the porch Japanese lanterns were hung about, presenting a very picturesque sight. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental selections by Miss Blandine of Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. William Courtney of Boston; Mrs. Wm. Gray of this city;
Mr. Holmgren of Concord and Mr.
Francis Mooney of Dover. One of the most pleasing numbers of the evening, "A Perfect Day," was rendered by Mr. Carl Holmgren. Mr. Holmgren is a young baritone of considerable promise. All the selections were rendered very pleasingly and artist-ically. After the musical program, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

One way to relieve habitual constipation is to take regularly a mild laxative. Doan's Regulax are recommended for this purpose. 25c a box at all drug stores.

WEDDED IN THIS CITY

Dr. John S. Fogg, a leading physician at Biddeford pulled off a surprise among his friends in that city by his recent marriage to Miss Wilhelmina Spear of Warren, Me. The ceremony was performed in this city by Rev. William P. Stanley of the Middle Street Baptist church. The groom is a former assistant surgeon in the army.

AT THE PLAYGROUNDS.

The children greatly miss Mr. Paul Lawrence, who has returned to his home in Keene. Mr. Lawrence's fingers were never idle at the piano, and he made things lively with his music.

The boys' sports are being run off
this afternoon.

A good number of children were about this morning although the strong east wind blowing across the playground made it rather disagreeable.

The Security
Of Quality

There is a supreme sense of satisfaction that goes with the ownership of an article of acknowledged merit. This is especially true of the piano. The buyer of a quality piano has a feeling of confidence, of perfect security, born of the knowledge that his piano will, at all times, prove equal to all artistic demands. Owners of HARDMAN PIANOS have that feeling, and are intensely proud of their pianos. The Hardman possesses a tonal beauty and the quality of durability which few pianos equal and none surpass. You are
